Employment

Institute for Analytical Sociology, Linköping University, Sweden March 2016- present
Research Fellow

Katarzyna Kozyra Foudation, Warsaw Feb 2015 – Dec 2015
Lead Researcher
I was working on a research project about gender gap at visual art academies in Poland and contributed at all stages of this project. This project was commissioned by Katarzyna Kozyra Foundation and co-funded by Polish Ministry of Culture and National Heritage.

Home Office, London Dec 2012 – May 2013
Intern and Consultant
I spent 6 months on ESRC internship the National Contact Point for European Migration Network, a research unit at the Home Office. I worked on a project on British strategies to attract highly skilled migrants and drafted a report on UK policies in this area. I was later hired as an external consultant for the Home Office.

Oxford University, Oxford Sep 2012 – Oct 2015
Research Assistant
I worked as a research assistant on two research projects; the first was based in the Centre for Socio-Legal Studies and looked at the implementation of the data protection Directive 95/46/WE across EU Member States. The second was about the impact of political remittances on democratization process in Central and Eastern Europe. I prepared reports on Polish parliamentary debates surrounding the implementation of the data protection law, collected biographical information about Polish MP's who studies abroad, translated information from Polish to English and worked on statistical analysis.
