LiU Summer Academy: Exploring Sweden, the Anthropological Way, 7,5 ECTS Credits

COURSE CATEGORY Single subject course
MAIN FIELD OF STUDY Social Anthropology - SBA
SUBJECT AREA Social Anthropology – SO2

COURSE CODE 741G27

AIM OF THE COURSE

The course is given within the framework of the Linköping University Summer Academy and is only open to students from Linköping University's partner universities.

The courses within Linköping University Summer Academy are all in English and at the bachelor level.

On completion of the course the student should be able to:

- plan, execute, and report an ethnographic project, based on qualitative data created by means of interviewing and participant observation
- reflect on the project research process
- reflect on questions about culture and national identity, based on her/his own collected empirical data
- analyse qualitative data and report the results as well as reflections on the research process in a written project report.

CONTENTS

The course is an introduction to anthropological fieldwork, the qualitative (ethnographic) research method that is characteristic of social and cultural anthropology.

The course combines practice with theory. Guided by teachers, the participants plan, execute and report an ethnographic project located in Linköping.

The course encourages the participants to reflect on the research process, and on issues of culture and national identity, based on the material they create in Linköping through their ethnographic projects.

TEACHING

- lectures on the theory and practice of fieldwork
 - fieldwork, guided by teachers
 - teacher-led seminars for feedback during fieldwork, during analysis, and for project reporting
- The language of instruction is English.

EXAMINATION

Active participation in seminar discussions is required. The course is examined by a written project report. Detailed information about the requirements of the project report will be given during the course.

Students who fail an exam covering either the entire course or part of the course twice are entitled to have a new examiner for the retake examination.

Students who have passed an examination may not retake it in order to improve their grades.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To meet the general entry requirements, students must have completed 1 year full-time studies (passed 60 ECTS credits or equivalent) from one of Linköping University's partner universities.

GRADING

The course is graded according to the ECTS grading scale A-F

Course CERTIFICATE

Course certificate is issued by the Faculty Board on request. The Department provides a special form which should be submitted to the Student Affairs Division.

COURSE LITERATURE

The course literature is decided upon by the department in question.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The planning and implementation of the course are based on the syllabus. The course evaluation included in each course must therefore take up the question how well the course agrees with the syllabus.

The course is carried out in such a way that both men's and women's experience and knowledge is made visible and developed.
