

LiU hereby advertises a Postdoctoral Scholarship in Paediatrics

Research environment

You will take part in research activities at the Division of Children's and Women's Health \(BKH\), Department of Biomedical and Clinical Sciences, Linköping university under supervision of Professor Johnny Ludvigsson.

Research project

You will work with research on physical activity and its relation to the development of autoimmune diseases.

Qualifications and requirements

Scholarships can only be awarded to foreign citizens with a doctoral degree or equivalent obtained in a country other than Sweden. The date of the doctoral degree must be no more than four years before the application deadline, exceptions are made for e.g. parental or sick leave. The applicant must not have been employed by Linköping University previously.

Scholarship may not consist solely of research collaboration with a mutual exchange of methodological and technical expertise but must also contain a well-defined training element and a qualification plan must be established for the scholarship period.

The applicant must have or be about to receive a doctoral degree in a subject relevant to the research project.

The applicant must have good knowledge on ABIS, and statistical competence to analyse whether physical activity in early life influences the development of different diseases. Previous experience in the research field is meriting.

Starting date

June 1st, 2025

Appointment and Conditions

Appointment is for six months. A scholarship at Linköping University cannot exceed two years in total.

The scholarship amounts to SEK 28,500:-/month (tax-free) (~€ 2,650/month). Funding can be available to participate in conferences.

Essential information about healthcare, insurances etc. can be found here. Questions are welcome to lisa.dobrosch@liu.se

Application procedure

The following documents (in pdf-format) must be submitted when applying for a scholarship

1. Cover letter, max 1 page, describing your background, research interests and what makes you interested in the fellowship.
2. Qualification plan, max 1 page, describing clearly what qualifications you want to obtain during the scholarship period.
3. CV, max 4 pages, including contact details to three reference persons.
4. Full publication list.
5. Copy of passport, PhD diploma, and MSc transcripts with grades.

The application should be sent electronically to lisa.dobrosch@liu.se. Mark the email with Dnr. BKV-2025-00394 on subject line.

Applications deadline

May 30th, 2025