

Global Girlhoods: From Imaginings to Embodied Experiences

Department of Thematic Studies – Child Studies

Linköping University

11-12th of April 2019

A collaboration between girlhood researcher Natalie Coulter from York University Canada and child studies researcher Anna Sparrman from Linköping University Sweden.

THURSDAY APRIL 11

All meals and coffees are provided by the workshop.

10.45

Meet up in the lobby of the hotel at 10:45 to travel to the university.

11.30 – 12.45

Lunch at Linköping University Club

13.00 – 13.15

Opening and welcome

Goals of workshop (Natalie and Anna)

Place: Lethe

13.15 - 15.00

Session 1: Rethinking Girlhood: Imaginings and Embodiments

Chair: Anna Sparrman

13.15- 13.45 Rethinking Girlhood in Neoliberalism, Digital Capitalism and Consumer Culture

Natalie Coulter

Dept. Of Communication Studies, York University, Canada

13.50 -14.20 Growing up on TV Sally Draper and the borders of childhood/girlhood

Cecilia Lindgren and Johanna Sjöberg

Dep. of Thematic Studies – Child Studies, Linköping University, Sweden

14.25-14.55 Educating Black Girls: Black Feminist Pedagogy and The Oppositional Gaze

Kisha McPherson

Faculty of Education, York University, Canada

15.00 – 15.30 FIKA!

15.30- 16.15 Workshop #1: Images of girl-children

16.15 – 17.15

Session 2: The politics of girls and girlhoods

Chair: Kisha McPherson

16.15 - 16.45 Girls orchestrating play and handling conflict in the 1930s

Anne-Li Lindgren and Sara Backman Prytz

Child- and Youth Studies, Stockholm University, Sweden

16.45 - 17.15 Becoming Feminist, Rape Cultures and the Young Girl

Kajsa Widegren

University of Gothenburg, Sweden

17.15-18.30 Travel downtown and check in at hotel

18.30 Dinner at local restaurant

FRIDAY APRIL 12

All meals and coffees are provided by the workshop.

8.20 Meet in hotel Lobby with Natalie to travel together to the University

09.00 – 10.30

Session 3: Living Girlhood

Place: Forum

Chair: Kajsa Widegren

09.00 - 09.30 Does 4+4+4 Equal 12? Girls' Schooling in Turkey

Deniz Arzuk

Visiting scholar at Department of Thematic Studies Child Studies,
Linköping University, Sweden

09.30- 10.00 Figuring the 'girl child' in photographs of 'progressive' Zimbabwean dads

Sarah Mitchell

Department of Thematic Studies Child Studies, Linköping University, Sweden

10.00-10.30 Making visible book reading – multimodal analysis of girl's reading practices

Lars Wallner

Department of Behavioural Science and Learning, Linköping University, Sweden

10:30 – 11 FIKA!

11.00 – 12.00

Session 4: Playing the Girl and the Child

Chair: Natalie Coulter

11.00 - 11.30 Girls don't compete? Gaming and peer cultures among Danish Youth

Anne Mette Thorhauge

University of Copenhagen, Denmark

11.30 - 12.00 Looking through Alice-the-child-figure – Alice in Wonderland and Child Studies Multiple

Anna Sparrman

Department of Thematic Studies Child Studies, Linköping University, Sweden

12.00 – 13.00 Workshop #2

Brainstorming: Explore the links and disjunctures of girl's studies, child studies.

13.00 -14.00 Lunch at Linköping University Club

Map to the Campus:

The lunch will be in the building called Vallfarten and the event takes place in Temahuset

<file:///C:/Users/annsp60/Downloads/LiU-Valla-170307.pdf>