

Are you a clinical researcher of excellence in paediatrics seeking career opportunity?

Linköping University in collaboration with The Joanna Coccozza Foundation for Children's Medical Research is offering full professorship and long-term research funding.

Are you a well-established group leader in paediatric research looking for a career opportunity with the potential to expand and develop?

The Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences at Linköping University (LiU), in collaboration with Joanna Coccozza Foundation for Children's Medical Research, is offering a permanent full professorship with a long-term funding commitment offering potential to expand your current research group.

The Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences is searching for an ambitious clinical pediatric researcher with an international reputation who has established unique methodologies that will strengthen paediatric research at LiU in accordance with the intentions of the donation by the Joanna Coccozza Foundation.

In addition to the permanent position at LiU, the Joanna Coccozza Foundation will allocate an annual amount of SEK 5 million (approx. € 0.5 million) during a minimum of 5 years that can be applied for by the appointed researcher, and HRH Crown Princess Victoria's Children's Hospital offers combined clinical positions for the applicant and clinical research associates.

Read more at: liu.se/en/work-at-liu/vacancies

Last day to apply: 25th of May