

Submission guidelines, 13th international conference on Researching Work and Learning (RWL13)

Conference theme: Researching work and learning in times of change.

Abstracts are invited for contribution in one of the following formats:

1. Paper presentations: abstract 600-800 words
2. Symposiums - three presenters planning to focus on the same theme: rationale 200-300 words + abstracts of 300-400 words
3. Poster presentations: abstract 300-400 words

Abstracts should be submitted no later than October 1, 2023.

Abstracts should be anonymized and submitted as Word or PDF document, no later than 01.10.2023. Please follow the format below. You will be informed regarding acceptance by 15.01.2024. The deadline for submitting full papers (approximately 8-10 pages, including references) is 15.05.2024. All abstracts should be submitted in English.

Submissions are sent to: rw13@liu.se

Please indicate in the email title whether your abstract is for a paper, symposium or poster.

Please include author(s) and affiliation(s) (including contact information to the corresponding author) in the email.

Abstracts should include the following:

1. Title
2. Presentation format (see above)
3. Research Framing (e.g., general description, aim, theoretical framework)
4. Methods / Methodology
5. (Expected) Results / Conclusions
6. Relevance to research field of work and learning
7. References

Paper presentation, abstract 600-800 words

Please see abstract guidelines above.

Student paper award

RWL 13 will be hosting a Student Paper Award. Please include the following sentence at the end of your abstract if you wish the paper to be considered for the student paper award:

I wish for this paper to be considered for the student paper award.

Symposium, rationale 200-300 words & abstracts 300-400 words

The organizer of the symposium should submit a symposium proposal with a plan for the symposium that includes all the following elements in a single document:

1. Rationale (200-300 words) containing:
 - a. The title of the symposium
 - b. The names of the contributors
 - c. A Chairperson and a Discussant, who can offer a critique of the symposium, need to be named on the proposal.
2. Abstracts of each paper included in the symposium (300-400 words)

The organizer of the symposium is responsible for communicating with the contributors and the conference organizer.

Poster, abstract 300-400 words

Please see abstract guidelines above.

More information about the conference is available at the conference website www.liu.se/en/article/conference-researching-work-learning

Organizing committee

Madeleine Abrandt Dahlgren, professor of medical education

Andreas Fejes, professor of adult education research

Maria Gustavsson, professor in education (workplace learning)

Natalia Tomczyk Lövfors, doctoral student in adult learning