

Exploring spaces and places in child and youth research: secret rooms and dangerous sites

Delve into the relationship between children, youth, and places and spaces. This seminar raises questions about challenges connected to places and spaces in child and youth research as well as what role children and young people's use of space have for larger societal transformations.

---

Guest Speakers

Peter Kraftl, Birmingham University
Marek Tesar, University of Auckland

LiU Speakers

Olga Anatoli
Yelyzaveta Hrechaniuk
Jonathan Josefsson
Rebecka Tiefenbacher

Time & Place

19 September 2023, 11.00-17.00
TEM 21, Tema Building, Campus Valla

All are welcome! Pre-register to eva.danielsson@liu.se for lunch & coffee.

SCHEDULE

11.00-12.15: How do I study places and spaces where children and youth spend time?

12.15-13.15: LUNCH

13.15-14.30: The challenges of writing up and presenting research about children, youth, place and space?

14.30-15.00: FIKA

15.00-16.15: World café - presenting challenges

16.15-17.00: Young people, place and space: challenges and transformations

From 17.00: Mingle