

Online dialogue: COP28 post-match analysis

Panelists

- Mattias Frumerie, Sweden's climate ambassador and Head of Delegation to UNFCCC at Swedish Ministry of Climate and Enterprise
- Åsa Persson, Research Director and Deputy Director at Stockholm Environment Institute
- Ricardo Marshall, Director, Roofs to Reefs Programme (R2RP), Prime Minister's Office, Barbados
- Emma Modéer Wiking, Global Head of International Sustainable Business, Business Sweden
- Maria Jernnäs, Post-doctoral Researcher at the Centre for Climate Science and Policy Research, Linköping University.

COP28 marks the conclusion of the first global stocktake. Did we come up with a roadmap to accelerate climate action? Was an agreement on operationalising the Loss and Damage Fund achieved? What questions were left unsolved and what issues need to be addressed before the next conference of parties in 2024? We gather a prominent panel to share insights into the COP28 negotiations.
