conference they are co-
organizing on 10th October 2024 on:

Ageism and sexism in old age:

The need for a new narrative on ageing

The conference intends to draw together researchers, activists, professionals, human rights' experts and anyone interested in discussing issues related to the experience of ageism and sexism faced by women in old age. The conference also aims to provide an engaging experience in discussing a new narrative for a society in which older women are fully included and valued. This online event will comprise keynote speeches and oral presentations in English and is open to all (no registration fees).
